Lifeboat Pty Ltd trading as Video Horizons Terms and Conditions:

1. Ownership of materials including tapes, discs, and recorded material remain the property of Video Horizons until all monies have been paid in full.
2. All recorded materials are checked prior to despatch. Video Horizons warrants the material, to which the program has been originally recorded to, to be free from defects for a period of 7 days from receipt of the goods. If a fault develops, notification of the fault must be reported to Video Horizon within this time. The goods then returned within a 14 day period from notification. The warranty is limited to duplication on a 1 for 1 basis after goods are returned to the place of purchase and checked for possible errors. The warranty is limited only to materials originally recorded onto by Video Horizons and not compatibility issues which may arise from some players, negligence or wear and tear from incorrect or normal use. DVD's are supplied in the DVD-R format
3. Any footage originally shot, scanned, converted, or edited by Video Horizons remains the copyright of Video Horizons. Music used in any production remains the copyright of the original artist. All other footage remains the copyright of the original owner.
4. It is agreed that material recorded may be used for promotional purposes and is limited to titles or images that are already recorded to disc or tape that may be displayed, whether by public appearance or via internet. However, personal information will not be disclosed or made public. Any original files of recorded images made at the time of recording, placed on a computer, will be held for a period of 7days on receipt of goods, or 14 days from date of invoice, whichever ever is the least time, after which time these files will be marked for deletion.
5. Material recorded, will not be duplicated by Video Horizons for sale to a third party unless prior arrangements from the original owner is made. Gift vouchers are excepted.
6. Material once edited may incur additional charges at the current rate should any changes to the final master be required. If music is supplied for insertion, every endeavour will be made to initiate the suggested request. However, if it is not possible to insert all music or a substitute has been made, or any song was unsuitable for any reason. Then Video Horizons reserves the right to make these changes at the time of production. We will not reproduce any copy protected material unless written permission has been granted.
7. Whilst every care is taken for the protection of any material that belongs to the client whilst stored on the property or in transit by Video Horizons, it is understood that this is at the owners risk.
8. Items that have been invoiced and not picked up or paid for within a 3 month period will be charged a $30 handling fee. Any items left for a period of more than 5 months will be disposed of.
9. It is understood that these Terms and Conditions make up the condition of sale between Video Horizons and the client.
10. Gift vouchers must be used within the time frame specified and are not redeemable for cash.
